B
11
A51P
v.9-10

CONTENTS

PAGE

The Scope of a Realistic Philosophy of Society (Presidential Address) 1
Charles C. Miltner, C.S.C., Ph.D., Department of Philosophy, University of Notre Dame.

The Social Theory of St. Thomas Aquinas 11
Clare Riedl, Ph.D., Marquette University.

The Philosophy of Capitalism 35
John A. Ryan, D.D., Dean, School of the Sacred Sciences, The Catholic University of America.

The Philosophical Basis of Communism 47
John LaFarge, S.J., New York City.

The Fascist State 63
Edward F. Murphy, S.S.J., Ph.D., President, Xavier University, New Orleans.

Philosophy of Internationalism 81
Paul Martin, Esq., Windsor, Ontario, Canada.

Search for a Usable Concept of Value 102
Leo R. Ward, C.S.C., Ph.D., Department of Philosophy, University of Notre Dame.

The Concept of Value: The Scholastic Viewpoint 117
Jules A. Baisnée, S.S., Sulpician Seminary, The Catholic University of America.

The Family in Relation to a Philosophy of Society 134
William J. Leen, Department of Philosophy, University of Notre Dame.

Education in a Philosophy of Society 154
George Johnson, Ph.D., Department of Education, The Catholic University of America.

Religion in the Philosophy of Society 164
Charles A. Hart, Ph.D., Department of Philosophy, The Catholic University of America.

Philosophy in the "Common Law" 175
William T. Dillon, Ph.D., Dean, St. Joseph's College for Women.

Reconstructing the Social Order 183
Raymond A. McGowan, Assistant Director, Department of Social Action, National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Philosophy of History 191
J. J. Callahan, C.S.Sp., President, Duquesne University.

PAGE

Minutes of Meeting of American Catholic Philosophical Association .. 200

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer, American Catholic Philosophical Association 205

Minutes of Meetings of the Executive Council, American Catholic Philosophical Association 207

List of Members, American Catholic Philosophical Association 209